A New Bishop-We learn that the Rev. Arthur Willis has been consecrated as Bishop of the Anglican Church in these Islands, and that he is expected to arrive about New Years. A Good Footing .- Some one asked Gammon what kind of a footing we Islanders will have in the future as to trans-Pacific steamers? A Webb-footing, of course was his reply. Supplement -We shall issue a supplement next week, containing, amongst other interesting matters, ican Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 30. TOTAL ECLIPSE of the sun December 11th : Visible in Australia, New Guinea, Borneo, Celebes, Islands in China Sea, China, India, Indian Ocean and part the sermon delivered by the Rev. W. Frear on Amer-of the Pacific Ocean-not visible here. SETTLED .- By one of our late exchanges we observe that the Rev. E. C. Bissell, who for a time so acceptably filled the pulpit of the Fort Street Church, in this city, has accepted a call to settle over a Church in Winchester, Mass.

HONOLULU RIFLES .- This fine corps of volunteer soldiery turned out on Tuesday afternoon, and marched through the principal streets. They made

A New Journal.-By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that a new monthly literary ournal will make its appearance in Honolulu on the 1st of January. There is undoubtedly an abundance of the right sort of talent here to make such an enterprise successful and a credit to the islands. The Punchbowl, of which the Hawaiian will in some sort be the successor, was an able and spicy sheet, and we regretted its discontinuance.

Junge McKean, the Utah magistrate, who is giving the Mormons so much troutle, is severely censured by the Sacramento Union. That paper pronounces him as "confirmed a bigot as any Mormon he desires to persecute :" says that Mormonism was fast dying out, and that this proceeding will give it a new lease of life. A SPREE .- The steward of the Fire Department undertook to celebrate the 28th by getting tight and appropriating a horse without leave. He was arrested and spent the holiday and night in the station house, and in the morning was warned by the Magistrate that as it was necessary for the good of the public that he should not neglect his duties to the Department, a repetition of the offense would cause his being " sent over." NOT DROWNED, NOR DEVOURED. -The boy who was the subject of an item last week, as having jumped overboard from the steamer Nevada, and supposed to have been eaten by the sharks, we are now informed landed safely at Waikiki about one o'clock in called Puuhia. Five hours in the water and then getting safe to the shore through breakers, would be an impossible feat for any one but a Hawaiian. LIGHT (FINGERED) INFANTRY.—The other day, a fellow who had been arrested for stealing some articles of clothing, was told to pick them up and carry them down to the Police Court. This he decidedly objected to doing, not wishing to make such a public exhibition of himself. Whereupon he was provided with a set of cross-belts, and the stolen clothes fixed upon his back, knapsack fashion, and thus he marched through the street as light fingered infantry. MASONIC. - At the Regular Meeting of Le Progres de l'Oceanie Lodge, No. 124, A. F. & A. M., held at their Lodge Room, on Monday evening, Nov. 27th, Ir is now suggested in Eastern cities that huge "fire walls" be erected to arrest the progress of fires. A city might be laid out in sections, bounded by these lines iff such a manner, it would seem, as to prevent the suread of fire from one section to another. These walls would necessarily be massive and high, and might be made to run at the rear of stores and through the middle of blocks. A writer in the Boston Advertiser thinks it would not be impossible to provide the means of closing the streets, so far as might be wished, in time of fire at the intersections of these walls. Loss of the BYLANTIUM.—In the Weekly Oregonian of November 4th, we find the following paragraph of news from British Columbia : "The whaling brig Byzantium was wrecked by striking a reef in Weynton Passage a few days ago.

All hands saved."

This vessel left Honolulu on the 15th of April last, command of R. Calhoun, for Victoria, V. THE NEW HOTEL -We learn from the Organ that Mr. Allen Herbert, who has had eleven years' experience in the business, has taken a lease of the new hotel for five years, and that it will probably be open for the reception of guests about the 15th of next month. We have had our say in the past as to the building, etc., and in that respect, have nothing to add and nothing to retract. We sincerely hope however that the new man will realize his expectations of doing well, and that those who need the dation to be found in a botel will be well BASE BALL .- Last Tuesday the "Whangdoodle"

These are intended as preparathat the REGULAR ANNUAL MEETING for the election tions for the commemoration of the advent of Christ. of officers for the ensuing year will be held on Mon- On the first Sunday we pray to be enabled to cast day evening Dec. 4th at 74 o'clock.

ICE MANUFACTORY .- After many mishaps, and ercoming difficulties that would have discouraged a less persevering and energetic person, Mr. Smith has got his ice manufactory on the esplanade in full tide of successful experiment, and we are informed that he will commence on Monday morning to fornish customers with the luxury at the rate of five cents per pound. Success to the enterprise.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.-A man named Wm. Smith was arrested on Tuesday last, for fast riding through the streets, and for lack of bail, and besides being somewhat drunk, he was looked up in a cell at the Station House. After he had been there about an hour, policeman Dodd, in passing the door of the cell, observed him through the grating apparently hanging against the door. It was found that he had attached one leg of his pantaloons to a bar of the grating over the door, and with the other tied around his neck, had just swung off. On being brought to, he declared his intention to kill himself, as he "had never been in a prison before," and he was ironed for safety. Another man, who answers to the name of " Salem," was also in the cell at the time, looking on apparently quite unconcerned, while his companion thus endeavored to "shuffle off this

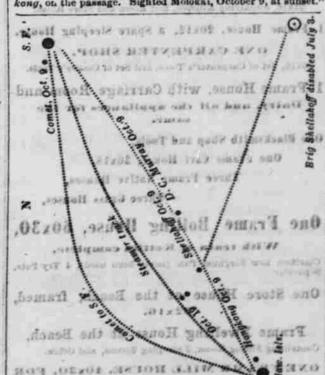

A SOLITARY WALK.—Such is a walk about wharves just now. There is but one square-rigged vessel in port on this fine Wednesday morning, and the solitary, "old resident," whom we meet declares that he never knew of such a thing before during the thirty years he has lived in Honolulu-the harbor empty of shipping in November. And then he goes on to tell how, in the "forties," and the "fifties," he has seen as many as two hundred ships, tier upon tier, in this month, sometimes four through the centre of the crowded harbor into which and the Asiatic ; that is to say, the fraternity of men. a vessel must haul to get out of the port. Then he to whatever nation they may belong. Secondly strolls along, shaking his head and muttering about is to say, no lies. Thirdly-No standing army, for "the good old times." A person of a contemplative that perpetuates war, but a citizen militia for the turn of mind, in love with solitude, can find it in these days by taking a walk about the wharves.

that our remarks under this heading in our last number, in reference to the civil suit between a merchant and an auctioneer, tried in the Police Court lately, did not convey a perfectly accurate statement of the result of that case, and that we ought to have been more explicit in stating that the appeal noted to the Supreme Court from the decision of the Court than seven "drunks" called, the fines of which that decision as to the legality of the charge made, committed for trial at the Supreme Court, on a and which was the casus belti between the parties, charge of embozzlement of the sum of $80 from ancreed to be refunded to the plaintiff was by his con- on the 25th. Wm. Smith pose As we remarked before, the controversy as to and "Salem," were each fined $10 for furious advertising charges, is one entirely between consignors and the auctioneers, and we refrain from stealing sour beer, to the value of fifty cents, and ject naturally suggests.

AMERICAN THANKSGIVING .- Thursday last was very generally observed by the American residents of this city, as Thanksgiving day, their places of business were pretty generally closed, and the traditional roast turkey and plum pudding graced many a festive board. At 11 a. m. quite a congregation as sembled at the Fort Street Church, where after read ing of President Grant's proclamation and prayer by the Rev. Dr. Damon, the Pastor, the Rev. Mr Frear, delivered a very able discourse, taking his text from Ps. 147 : 20. "He hath not dealt so with any nation." The speaker showed most conclusively how Americans as a people had peculiar reasons for thanking God in his dealings with them, from their founding by the Pilgrim Fathers, through all their subsequent history. In a word, aside from the text, and the generally religious tone, the discourse might well have done for a first-rate Fourth of July oration. The only criticisms we venture to make are, that the blessing of a free press was not enumerated. and that no allusion was made to the great responsidilities that must devolve upon a nation so seculiarly blessed as that of the United States. This report brought out a statement from a correspondent, that we published last week, fully proving that the Comet could not have been near the wreck at any time during her passage to San Francisco, ending October 10th. Since then, we have met Mr. George Fritsch, a cabin passenger on the North German bark Hongkong, from San Francisco to this port, who stated

"We left San Francisco, on the 27th of September, in company with an American three-masted schooner and the American brig Nellie Hastings, with both of which vessels we parted company on the first day out. From that day to the 10th of October, when we arrived at Honolulu, saw no other vessel whatever. There was no woman on board the Hong-kong, on the passage. Sighted Molokai, October 9, at sunset."

showing the position of the brig Shellehoff when disabled, her probable line of drift during 108 days, and the point where she was boarded from the steamer Moses Touler. It will be seen that the wreck was very close to the usual steamship route to the islands when discovered. The bark Comet, from this port September 18th, taking a northern route reached San Francisco, October 19th, and could by no possibility have been near the wreck. The bark Hongkong, leaving San Francisco on the 27th, sighted Molokai, one of this group, October 9th. The Captain of the Shellehoff reported that about that date, October 9th, a back with a new spanker set, came so close to him as to enable him to see a woman on board. We know that the bark D. C. Murray, that arrived here on the 16th of October, 12 days from San Francisco, must have crossed the line of the Shellchoff's drift some four degrees to the eastward of the wreck. May it not great extent the future prosperity and credit of Fij be possible that the appearance of this bark was a phantom of hope born of intense longing and feverish phantom of hope born of intense longing and feverish desire? As the bewildered traveler over desert taineers at Ba, to make reprisals for attacks by the wastes, sees before him the sparkling semblance of still lakes and pools of water, so we can imagine the lone survivors on the Shellehoff, after a hundred weary days of watching, see before them this phantom bark, that, disappearing with the lessening light of day, left them without hop ...

The festival was instituted by St. Anselm in 1070.

THE INTERNATIONALS .- A great deal has been written and printed for and against the mysterious combination known as the "International Society," and generally it has been regarded as an incendiary organization, predisposed to revolution and anarchy, flavoring strongly of agrarianism and mainly controlled by hot-headed Radicals of the Red Republican school. Garibaldi, however, who is a member of the Order, in high standing, gives the following ac-

Metereological Notes. Tw the Editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser : SIR :- By request, I hand you the enclosed notes of rain at Nuuanu, as taken by me for the month of November past: A 1 2 000000 1 100 7.....1.12 27-Sprinkles

9......24 Total fall for the month 14.33, which will be seen to be a little above the average monthly fall as per notes I have had the honor of presenting you heretofore. Though we have had much rain near the beginning and close of the past month, and a greater fall than usual during the past month, jet it is a somewhat remarkable fact, that we have had more days without rain during the month than any since October, 1869.

For some years I took daily notes of rain, temperature, and wind, but finding so much sameness

in my notes of temperature and wind, the duty of making them became irksome, and I abandoned it but have since regretted so doing, as although there is great sameness from day to day, there is sufficient variety to make it very interesting in comparing different seasons and different years.

Without tables to prove my judgment in error, I regard the interruption of trades during the past few months as one of the most remarkable during my residence in the Kingdom. Our trade winds during the past summer grew lighter and still lighter, until they finally merged with southerly airs early in the fall, since which we have had about as much of one as the other, but not a single

FROM FIJI.-Our latest advices from this new kingdom of the Pacific, are to the 7th of October. via New Zealand. The elections for Parliament were progressing quietly, and it was anticipated that government would have a good working majority. The meeting of Parliament was fixed for November 1st. For the preservation of law and order, a police court had been provisionally established, and the Hawaiian criminal code had, by "an order in Council." been declared to be in force at Levuks, until the 80th October. Mr. P. Brougham had been appointed Police Magistrate, and Dr. Macartney King's Counsel and Crown Prosecutor. The temporary incarceration of an Englishman, for "contempt, "anpeared to have excited very angry feelings, and even to have drawn forth some kind of protest from the British Consul, although, judging from the report of what was said and done by the man so incarcerated, what was said and done by the man so incarcerated, he would seem to have richly merited even a heavier punishment.

The Times of September 16th announced that a commission, which had been appointed by King Cakohan (Thakomban) to inquire into certain questions and details connected with the labor trade, met on Tuesday week, at the Council Chamber. The commission had elicited many important facts, which cannot, however, without defeating the ends for which the commission is now sitting, be as yet made public. There can be no doubt of the vast importance of the subject now under investigation; and from the well-known ability of the gentlemen who are pursuing this arduous tack, results affecting to a
